Two Watervliet Boys Fall.
Official announcement from Washington, has been received announcing the death in action in France of two more Watervliet boys, Corporal James T. Danaher, nephew of Miss Elizabeth Coghlan, 1445 Seventh avenue, and Private William A. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Murphy of 1316 First avenue. Both boys were members of "A" company, 105th infantry, which according to reports, was in the thick-est of fighting the last few weeks in France.
Both men were killed September 29. Corporal Danaher was twenty-three years old and, before enlisting, was employed in the Hall and Hartwell Collar factory in Troy. Corporal Danaher, before being accepted for service, made three attempts to enlist. He was a member of St. Patrick's church, the Holy Name society and the Ushers as-sociation.

WAR DEPARTMENT
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE

101 Duell, Lewis G.

WASHINGTON

January 7, 1926.

Statement of service.

The Adjutant General,
State of New York,
Albany, New York.

1. In a recent communication from your office, information was requested as to the National Guard organization with which Lewis G. Duell served and the date of his enlistment.

2. The records of this office show that Lewis G. Duell reported for Federal service June 20, 1916 with Machine Gun Co., 2 Infantry, New York National Guard, and was mustered out of Federal service October 20, 1916 and was evidently furloughed to reserve while the organization was out of Federal service. He did not respond to the call of the President dated March 22, 1917 as a New York National Guard Reservist and is therefore considered as having been absent without leave from that date to June 3, 1918, the date he reported and was honorably discharged. The date of his enlistment is not of record in this office.

3. The 724-2 statement of service card in your file, showing him enlisted and discharged June 3, 1918 should be cancelled. A card prepared in accordance with the information now of record is inclosed herewith.

By order of the Secretary of War:

Robert C. Davis
Major General,
The Adjutant General,

Over.

For exceptional devotion to duty, resourcefulness and determination while serving as Transport Officer of his regiment. During the battle of Arc de Metz Ridge, France, Oct. 18, 1918, this officer finding that one of the companies of his regiment then engaged in action had not secured hot food, due to heavy shelling of the approaches to their position, personally conducted a carrying party to the company's position in the line and delivered needed cooked rations. He repeated this the following night under heavy enemy fire.
